Question
Is it possible to issue a CB and/or ENEC/ NTR Certificate on an adaptor as a single component?
Decision
No, the issuing of a CB and/or ENEC/ NTR Certificate on a single adapter is not allowed. The Test Certificate shall be issued on the complete track system Track systems shall exist of at least a track, supply connector, coupler and adapter: On an adapter as a single component it is not possible to issue a CB Test Certificate, as the adapter manufacturer cannot control the dimensions of the essential parts of the third party track.
